

“

A smooth and planned transition to secondary school is crucial for all children and particularly for children with additional needs. KLB ensured there was a succession of planned activities that were focused around the children being prepared for their transition.

Working collectively with the staff at KLB and families, KLB were extremely sympathetic to the needs of the children and took on board the extra provisional needs that would assist the children during transition and once at secondary school. Definitely a child centred process.

Gloucestershire Primary SENDCo

”