

Exceptional Circumstances - Leave Request

Other than family holiday, medical appointments and extra-curricular activities

The Headteacher may only grant leave of absence for exceptional circumstances.

Examples of exceptional circumstances where leave may be granted during term time are as follows:

- To attend a funeral
- The death or terminal illness of a close relative
- If a parent is service personnel and is returning from a tour of duty abroad where it is evidenced the individual will not be in receipt of any leave in the near future that coincides with school holidays*
- Where an absence from school is recommended by a health professional as part of a parent or child's rehabilitation from a medical or emotional issue*
- Religious observance – The Education Act 1996 S444(3) (c), states "on any day exclusively set apart for religious observance by the religious body to which his/her parent belongs";
- To attend a wedding of a close relative – one day's leave will be authorised for the day of the wedding

Where there are exceptional and unforeseen circumstances that fall outside of the above, please complete this form for your request to be considered.

supporting evidence will be required*
